

Holley Funeral 12-9-1924 Held Last Week

Emory LaMorte Holley was born at Brooklyn, Iowa, March 21, 1874, and passed away at his home on Saturday, November 29, 1924.

Mr. Holley had been in his usual good health, and while doing his chores Saturday evening, was taken with an attack of acute heart disease and was found by his son Robert lying dead in the driveway about ten minutes after leaving the house.

On March 18, 1896, he was married to Bertha Dee, and to them were born ten children, Harold of Chicago; Mrs. Everett Edwards of Grinnell, Iowa; Mrs. Edmund DeBerry of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Lyle Bobzin of Newton, Iowa; and Eugene, Maye, Marlon, Robert, Emory Jr. and Mary Helen, who are at home, with the mother.

He is also survived by his father, S. L. Holley, two brothers, Will and Earl of Brooklyn, and one sister, Mrs. John Corrough.

The funeral was held from the home Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Music was furnished by a male quartet and Rev. E. W. F. Holler officiated. Pallbearers were John Long, Jess Miller, John Hicks, John Matzen, Will Frizzell and Earl Simmons. Interment was made in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Those attending from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. G. B. McGuin. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gorsuch, Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards and Mr. Cross of Grinnell and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Bobzin, of Newton.—Brooklyn Chronicle.
