

Geneva Heishman

Geneva I. Heishman, 88, of Grinnell, a former resident of Malcom, died Tuesday, Jan. 1, at St. Francis Manor.

Funeral services were held Friday at the Nevenhoven Funeral Home in Brooklyn, with the Rev. Carol Myers, pastor of the Malcom United Methodist Church, officiating. Casket bearers were Gar Ruprecht, Steven Meeker, Sonny Schneekloth, Sid Lamb, Dean Heishman and Preston Shaw. Burial was at Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom.

She was the daughter of John A. Meyer and Della B. Shaw Heishman and was born Sept. 20, 1913, near Malcom. She was a graduate of Malcom High School.

On Oct. 30, 1940, she was married to Grant M. Heishman in Des Moines. They moved to California while Mr. Heishman was in the service, during which time she was employed at Boeing Aircraft.

They returned to the Malcom area to farm. Mrs. Heishman later was employed in the school lunch program in Malcom, and she also cleaned homes for many families in the area.

She was a life-long member of the Malcom United Methodist Church, the board of the Malcom Cemetery Association and Malcom Ruritan.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; and two brothers, Preston Meyer in infancy and Claire Meyer.

A nephew, John Meyer, resides in Brooklyn.
