LYDIA A. HUEDEPOHL

BC 08-19-92
The daughter of the Rev. Herman and Anna Brockman Greif, Lydia was born April 25, 1906 in Davenport. She was baptized May 26, 1906 at her home by her father, pastor of the Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Davenport and was confirmed May 18, 1919 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Williamsburg. She attended Lutheran school in Williamsburg and graduated from Williamsburg High School. She attended Bethany College in Mankato, Minn.

She was married to Edmund Huedepohl June 28, 1928 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Williamsburg. Following their marriage the couple farmed in Hilton Township near Williamsburg. They later bought a farm near Brooklyn. They retired in 1961 and moved to Brooklyn to make their home.

She was a member of St. James Lutheran Church in Victor, the Ladies Aid of St. James, and the Social Circle Community Club of Brooklyn.

She is survived by her three sons, Donald and Richard, both of Brooklyn, and George of Stratford; six grandchildren; four great grandchildren; and a brother, Herman Greif of West Allis, Wis.

Lydia died Monday evening, Aug. 10, at Grinnell Hospital at the age of 86. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Edmund Aug. 8, 1968; a sister, Esther Stahlecker; a brother, Henry Greif; and a brother and sister in infancy.

Funeral services were Aug. 13 at St. James Lutheran Church, Victor. The Rev. Nathan P. Rastl, St. John's Lutheran Church, Victor, was officiant.

Music was provided by Pam Cronbaugh, organist. Pallbearers were Dwight Huedepohl, Steven Huedepohl, Merlin Schmidt, Howard Huedepohl, Wayne Huedepohl and Arnie Witt.

Linda Huedepohl and Ralph and Floy Huedepohl were in care of flowers. Interment was at Victor Memorial Cemetery.
