Forrest Hopwood
Was Past Master
Of Golden Rod AF&AM

Funeral services were conducted at the Christian church in Deep River at 2 p.m. Nov. 30 for Forrest E. Hopwood, a life-long resident of the area. He died Nov. 28.

Rev. William Morehouse and Rev. John Hansel officiated at the church. Members of Golden Rod Lodge No. 512 conducted the interment services with assistance from the McAninch Funeral Home, Victor. Mrs. Clint Icenbice played the musical selections and accompanied Mrs. John Hansel who sang "Face To Face" and "Beyond the Sunset."

Casket bearers were P. J. Icenbice, Quentin Rose, Cleo McMains, Leonard Stevenson, Robert McWilliams and Elmer Dunnick. Flowers were cared for by Mrs. John Cullison and Mrs. Philip Winegarden.

Forrest Earl, son of Mary B. (Dillon) and Andrew Jackson Hopwood, was born 4 miles south east of Deep River Nov. 9, 1891. His entire adult lifetime was spent in the Deep River community as a carpenter.

On Dec. 23, 1920, he was united in marriage to Blanche Vivian Porter in Deep River, and to this union four children were born: Charles of Sacramento, Calif.; Earl of Rockford, Ill.; Raymond of Brooklyn, and Mildred Osten of Lincoln, Nebr.

He is survived by his wife, 10 grandchildren, three brothers and a sister.

He was a member of the Methodist church since 1921; and of the Golden Rod Masonic Lodge No. 512 AF & AM; of which he was a past master. He also was a member of the Consistory and other orders in Masonary.
