

Last Rites Friday For Chas. Horrigan

Funeral services for Charles F. Horrigan were held last Friday at 2:00 p.m. at Bramer Funeral Home with the Rev. Robert Cutbirth, pastor of the Hartwick Congregational church, officiating. Organist was Mrs. Ed Bartachek who also accompanied vocalists, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Squiers.

Interment was in Haven cemetery with Floyd Johnston, Noble Houston, Ray Walraven, William Benesh, Richard Ross and James Ryan serving as pallbearers. Flower attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gray and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wilcox.

Charles Frederick Horrigan was born June 10, 1909, at the Horrigan farm home north of Brooklyn where he had lived all of his life. His death Sept. 1, 1964, occurred at his home following a heart attack. He was 55 years old.

The son of James and Elizabeth Horrigan, he graduated from Chelsea High school in 1928.

He was married Jan. 8, 1930, to Doris Clark at Marshalltown. Four children, two daughters and two sons, were born to the couple: Nadine Evelyn and Janet Charlene, both of whom died in infancy, and Roger Charles, stationed with the air force at Rapid City, S.D. and Rodney Frederick, stationed at the marine corps air base at Beaufort, S.C.

Mr. Horrigan was a lifetime member of the Haven Community church and had served throughout the years in various capacities of church leadership. He had been an active participant in many community affairs and was currently serving as president of the Poweshiek County Beef Producers Assn.

In addition to his wife and sons, he leaves a brother, Ralph Horrigan of Tama, and four sisters, Mrs. Carrie Hendrickson of Phoenix, Ariz., Mrs. Milo (Marian) Ryan of Chelsea, Mrs. Julia McIlrath of La Habre, Calif. and Helen Nordin of Los Angeles, Calif.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Ruth.

September 10, 1964