Services held for Mr. Huff

H. Glenn Huff, 70, of Rte. 1, Lynnville, died Monday morning at Grand Rapids, Minn.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Sully Community Church, with the Rev. John T. Cocoris officiating. Organist was Mathilda Schultz, and vocalist was Russell Stravers. Pallbearers were Rick Huff, Glenn Speas, Philip Speaks, Jim VanDonselaar, John VanDonselaar, and Roger VanDonselaar. Flower bearers were Frances VanWyk and Ruth VanderWilt. Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. Memorials in Mr. Huff's name may be made to the Sully Community Church.

The son of James and Wilhelmina O'Neill Huff, he was born Dec. 1, 1908, at Clear Lake. He lived in Owatonna, Minn., before moving to Grinnell in 1920. He graduated from Grinnell High School in 1927. He attended Asbury College At Willmore, Ky., Grinnell College, and graduated from the University of Washington at Seattle.

In 1936, he was married to Inez Bailey at Nashua.

Following their marriage, the couple lived in Anchorage and Juneau, Alaska, where Mr. Huff was employed by the state as a surplus merchant and budget analyst. The couple later moved to Medford, Ore., where Mr. Huff operated a home appliance store. Mrs. Huff died in 1960, and Mr. Huff moved to Grinnell in 1969.

He was married to Phoebe Wilson Rupp in 1976 at her home near Lynnville.

Mr. Huff was a member of the Sully Community Church.
