Myrtle Ione Hull

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 15, at Grace United Methodist Church in Brooklyn for Myrtle Ione Hull, 84, of Brooklyn, formerly of Victor, who died Sunday, Sept. 12, 1999 at Grinnell Regional Medical Center in Grinnell.

The Rev. William B. Daylong, pastor of the church, officiated. Music was by organist Angie Hawkins.

Burial was in Victor Memorial Cemetery at Victor.

Myrtle was born on July 11, 1915, in Central City, to Moses and Ida Hamish Beasley. She was raised in the Central City High School with the class of 1933.

On May 10, 1950, she was married to Richard B. Hull in Cedar Rapids. The couple lived in Victor where they owned and operated Hull's Gas and Electric. They remained in Victor for 20 years, retiring to Holiday Lake in 1970. She moved to Brooklyn in 1997.

Myrtle enjoyed needlework and crocheting. She held a passion for cats and had a large ceramic cat collection. She was also active in congregate meals of Brooklyn.

She was a member of Grace United Methodist Church, the Rebekahs, the Poweshiek County Council on Aging, and Eastern Star, serving as a Past Worthy Matron. Presently she was Electra of Holly Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star.

She was preceded in death by her husband, and one brother, Raymond Beasley.

She is survived by her children and spouses, Elizabeth Ann Pitzen and husband Larry of Pewaukee, Wis., Gerald Anthony Hull and wife Dixie Lee of Independence, and Una Mae Hull-Smith of Los Gatos, Calif.; two grandchildren, Jonathan V. Pitzen, and Amy Beth Schneider and husband, Kurt; one great-grandchild, Jonathan Pitzen; three sisters, Vadena Fisher and Wilma Hart, both of Brooklyn, and Marian Freeman of Topeka, Kan.; and one brother, Thomas Beasley of Hope Well, Va.

A memorial fund has been established in her name.
