

Vaughan Hulse dies at 63

Vaughan D. Hulse Jr., 63, died Wednesday at Marshalltown Community Hospital after suffering an apparent heart attack at his home in Toledo.

Funeral services were conducted at 11 a.m. today at the First United Methodist Church in Toledo, with the Rev. Chet Davis officiating. The Toledo American Legion Post and the Toledo Masonic Lodge conducted military and fraternal rites. Burial was at Woodlawn Cemetery, Toledo, with the Henderson Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

He was born Oct. 29, 1917, in Newton. He was married to Elva Anderson of Keilogg on Dec. 31, 1939, in Des Moines. During World War II, he served in the U.S. Army. He was employed in grocery stores in Newton and Knoxville before moving to Toledo in July 1951 where he and his wife operated Von's By-Lo supermarket until retiring. Mr. Hulse was also a realtor in Toledo.

He was active in the Lions Club, the United Methodist Church, the American Legion and the Masonic Lodge. He was past president of Mid-Iowa Workshop in Marshalltown.

Survivors include his wife, Elva; three sons, David of Grundy Center, Larry of Marshalltown and Mark of Toledo; three grandchildren; one brother, Donald of Wichita, Kan.; and two sisters, Donna Beth DeMeyer and Dorothy Breckenridge, both of Newton. A sister-in-law, Juanita Ahrens, lives in Grinnell.

A memorial fund is being established.
