

H-R March 10, 1983
Samuel Hyatt

rites Friday

Samuel T. Hyatt, 90, of Kellogg died Tuesday afternoon at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10:30 a.m. Friday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Kellogg, with graveside services at 2 p.m. at Evergreen Cemetery in Collins.

Mr. Hyatt is survived by his wife, Minnie, and one son, James W. Hyatt of Marshalltown.

Friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.

Samuel Hyatt services held

H-R March 14, 1983

Samuel T. Hyatt, 90, of Kellogg died Tuesday, March 8, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were at 10:30 a.m. Friday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Kellogg, with the Rev. A.L. Schulz, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Morris Hay of the Hickory Grove Church officiating. Organist was Ann Buchmeier.

Pallbearers were Harold DeJong, Gerald Deppe, Charles Fish, L.W. Lemonds, Philip Lemonds and Jack Straton.

Burial was at Evergreen Cemetery in Collins.

The son of Noah and Mary Ann Hames Hyatt, he was born May 15, 1892, at Polk City. He was a graduate of Polk City High School and later graduate from Highland Park College in Des Moines. He served with the U.S. Army during World War I.

On Aug. 25, 1937, he was married to Minnie O. Marsh at Collins. The family farmed near Collins for 17 years, then moved to Kellogg.

Mr. Hyatt was employed at the Kellogg Co-op Elevator, served as a custodian for the Kellogg school system, and was a night watchman for Midwest Manufacturing Co. of Kellogg. He retired in 1971. He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Survivors include his wife, Minnie and one son, James W. Hyatt of Marshalltown. He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers and one sister.