

Mike Hyland, Tama Attorney, Dies This Morning

H-R 4-14-58

Word was received here that Mike Hyland, prominent Tama attorney, died this morning.

Hyland had suffered a stroke some time ago and was in failing health, although he continued to maintain his office hours.

A colorful man, Hyland coached football at Grinnell College in the mid-1920s and was Grinnell's first coach.

He was born in Tama, Iowa, and was a member of the Tama High School class of 1914.
