

Rites September 11 For Mrs. James Iezek

Mrs. James (Agnes) Iezek, 79, a resident of Brooklyn for 59 years, died September 7 at Mercy hospital in Cedar Rapids where she had submitted to surgery eight days previously.

She was born October 9, 1883, in Chelsea and was married October 28, 1904.

Surviving, in addition to her husband, are two sons, Fred and Edwin, both of Brooklyn; six grandchildren and a brother, Ed Behaunek of Belle Plaine. A son, Henry, died in infancy.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday, Sept. 11, at 9:00 a.m. at St. Joseph's Catholic church in Chelsea. Rosary services were held at eight o'clock Tuesday evening at the Hrabak Funeral Home.

Serving as pallbearers were Ralph Baker, Alfonse Landuyt, James Manatt, William McGarry, John Bennett and Emil E. Behaunek. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

The Brooklyn Chronicle
Thursday, September 19, 1963 3