

H.R. March 21, 1985

Jenaveve Innis rites Friday

Jenaveve Fern Innis, 69, died of an apparent heart attack Tuesday evening in the emergency room of Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. William Lawson of the Northside Friends Church officiating.

Burial will be in Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of David William and Florence Davis Reisinger, she was born Dec. 8, 1915 at Liscomb. She was married to Raymond H. Innis on June 23, 1934, in Newton.

Mrs. Innis is survived by her husband; her children, Barbara Jane Gladson of Grinnell, Larry Lee Innis of Grinnell, Betty Rose Miller of Cedar Falls, David James Innis of Grinnell, Judith Rae Schlesselman of Deep River, Sharon Kae Anderson of Kellogg and Roger Alan Innis of Grinnell; 19 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and one brother, Warren Louis Reisinger of Clemons.

She was preceded in death by two sons, Richard Dale Innis and Donald Eugene; her parents; and one sister, Clara R. Williams.