

Rites Held for Mrs. Iosbaker

2/7/73

Mrs. Louie Iosbaker, 89, a former resident of Grinnell, died Wednesday, Feb. 7, at the Knoxville Rest Home, where she had been a patient for the past 14 months.

The daughter of Streeter G. and Jennie Trey Smith, she was born May 20, 1883, at Caledonia, Ohio. She lived in Grinnell for 25 years until moving to the home of her son Ergo in Sigourney where she lived for 16 years. She was married to Earl Iosbaker Feb. 29, 1906, at Marengo; he preceded her in death Aug. 31, 1953.

Survivors include her three sons, Ergo Iosbaker of Sigourney, Dr. E. S. Iosbaker of Bentonville, Ark., and Erwin W. Iosbaker of Baltimore, Md.; three daughters, Mrs. William C. (Alle-Jenece) Adams of Grinnell, Mrs. Harry R. (Earleen) Pearson of Port Angeles, Wash., and Mrs. C. H. (Beulah) Bouma of Lynnville; 20 grandchildren; 32 great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; and a half-sister, Mrs. W. W. (Della) Bull of Marion, Ohio. She was preceded in death by her husband; her parents; one grandchild, Ronnie Pearson; a great-grandchild, Curtis Lee Adams; a sister, Helen Smith; and two half-sisters, Mrs. Beulah Cathers and Marguerite Bull.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 10, at the Reynolds Funeral Chapel, with the Rev. Frank Greenwood officiating. Burial was in the Pleasant Grove Cemetery in

A memorial fund for Mrs. Iosbaker has been established with the American Red Cross.