Services Set

H-R.
7/15/74
Miss Ruth E. Isaacs, 72, a resident of the Mayflower Home, died late Saturday, July 13, at Grinnell General Hospital, following hospitalization the past three weeks.

The daughter of Newton E. and Josephine Jacobs Isaacs, she was born June 24, 1902, at Thompson, Iowa. She received her education in the public schools at Thompson and was graduated from Thompson High School. She attended a private speech reading school in Minneapolis, Minn., and then attended Grinnell College for 1½ years. She was a graduate of the Nietzsche School of Lip Reading in New York City.

Miss Isaacs moved to Council Bluffs in 1947 and taught for 12 years at the Council Bluffs School for the Deaf. During World War II she was at Camp Dodge for a few years in the WAC uniform tailoring department. Since June 12, 1964, she had lived at the Mayflower Home. She was an active member of the Christian Science Church and was a reader for many years.

She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Cecil P. Lewis of Britt, Mrs. E. E. McIntire of Clear Lake and Mrs. Stanley (Carmen) Preston of Grinnell, and her brother, R. V. Isaacs of Des Moines. She was preceded in death by her parents; a brother, Milton; and an infant sister, Fern.

Graveside services for Miss Isaacs will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday, July 16, at the Rose Hill Cemetery at Thompson, Iowa, with the Rev. Walter R. Olson, pastor of the Lutheran Church at Thompson, officiating. Burial will be in the Rose Hill Cemetery.

Friends may call at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home until 9 p.m. Monday.
