

Harold Jackson dies March 6

H-E March 10, 1988

Harold Jackson, 83, of Rock Creek died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound at his home Sunday afternoon, March 6, according to Jasper County authorities and Dr. Fred Carpenter, medical examiner.

No services are planned. Mr. Jackson's body was donated to the University of Iowa College of Medicine.

The son of William R. and Florence Groover Jackson, he was born near Shawnee, Kan., April 14, 1904. He came with his family to Iowa and attended Grinnell High School for two years, then attended the University of Colorado School of Engineering.

Mr. Jackson was involved in building the Moffett Tunnel in Washington state, then moved to Chicago where he worked as a bus driver for the Chicago Motor Coach Co. for 25 years. He returned to the Rock Creek area in 1953.

Surviving are a brother, Donovan of Rock Creek and three sisters, Beulah Kent of South Gate, Calif., Faith Barr of Denver, Colo., and Wilma Oaks of Bakerfield, Calif.