

1-57 OBITUARY. 1916

L. E. Jacobs.

Lewis Edward Jacobs was born at Barnes City, Ia., Feb. 25, 1872, and passed peacefully to his reward from his home on Summer street, Jan. 4, 1916. Brother Jacobs has been a patient sufferer for over a year, though throughout his lingering illness which he bore with patience few realized how intense were his sufferings. Mr. Jacobs will ever be remembered as a bright, energetic young man. Educated in the public schools of Iowa, and the Iowa Wesleyan university at Mt. Pleasant. He spent several years as a teacher in the public schools. In 1898 with the other members of the family he moved to Grinnell, where he entered into business for himself.

In October, 1910, he was united in marriage with Miss Mabel Burr of this city. To this union one son was born, Lewis Edward, Jr., who is too young to realize his own loss, or his mother's great sorrow.

Besides wife and little son he is survived by father and mother, residing at 1323 Summer street, four brothers, Joseph M. of Rodley, Colo, William F., Hurlbert P., and Hugh L., of Grinnell; also three sisters, Mrs. Ross Higgins of Gray, Ia., Mrs. Arthur L. Coburn of Brooklyn, and Mrs. M. C. Satchell of Grinnell.

Early in life he united with the Methodist Episcopal church, of which he remained a faithful member till death. He was an earnest Christian, dutiful son, and loving husband, father and brother.

"There is a Reaper, whose name is Death,
And with His sickle keen
He reaps the bearded grain at a breath,
And the flowers that grow between."
