

Lloyd D. James

Lloyd D. James, 79, of Searsboro Manor died Saturday, Sept. 4, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Fred Buser, pastor of the Lynnville Church of God, officiating. Organist was Joyce James, and vocalists were Charles, Roy and Dianne James. Pallbearers were Mark Doll, Bob Franca, Craig, Curtis, David, Marty and Matt James, Roger Locklear, Jim Stielow and Terry Cullen. Burial was in Woodland Cemetery, Lynnville.

Memorials may be made to Grinnell General Hospital.

The son of Bert and Dora Garner James, he was born Nov. 15, 1913, near Taintor. He attended Ludwick School and later assisted his father with farming.

He was married to Blanche Roten in 1934, and the couple farmed near Taintor. In 1937 they moved to his parents' farm and farmed there for 54 years. Mr. and Mrs. James had lived at Searsboro Manor since 1990.

Surviving are his wife; three sons, Rex of Minot, N.D., Carl of Searsboro and Roy of Montezuma; 10 grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; and three sisters, Iola Willemssen of Lynnville, Wanda Williams of New Sharon and Ruth Hull of Searsboro. He was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, Harold and Ward.

H-R
October 7, 1993