

H-R December 1, 1980
Rites held for Mr. Jansen

William E. Jansen, 74, of Sully died Tuesday morning at University Hospitals in Iowa City. Nov. 25

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the First Reformed Church in Sully, with the Rev. B. Daniel Hakken officiating. Burial was at the Sully Cemetery.

Memorials in Mr. Jansen's name may be made to the Christian Opportunity Center in Pella.

The son of Everet and Wilemina Jansen Jansen, he was born June 30, 1906, near Killduff. He attended school near that community. On Jan. 24, 1928, he was married to Clara Vos at Sully.

Mr. Jansen was a longtime Kellogg, Lynnville and Sully area farmer.

Survivors include his wife, Clara; a sister, Elizabeth Vos of Lynnville; and four brothers, Gerritt of Lynnville; John E. and Cornelius, both of Sully, and Louis of Pella. He was preceded in death by two infant sons, his parents, and a brother, Henry.