Rachel Jantzen.

Rachel Jantzen, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Jantzen, was born in Sheridan township, Aug. 17, 1898.

Although her health has been rather delicate since she was four years old, she went to school until two years ago, when her parents thought by keeping her from school for a year her health might be benefited. Nor much improvement was noticed and she again attended regularly all last year.

On Wednesday evening, August 27, she became suddenly ill with an attack of heart failure, which caused her death early Thursday morning, Aug. 28, 1913.

Besides her father and mother, she leaves two sisters and three brothers.

The funeral was held at the home at 811 Summer street, at 1:30 p. m., August 29, 1913.

Interment was made at Malcom cemetery.
