Carl Clayton Jay, son of Homer and Lou Jay, was born near Lynnville, Iowa, October 18, 1896, and died Sunday night, September 28th, 1958, at their home in Lynnville, at the age of 61 years, 11 months, and 10 days.

Carl Jay lived nearly all of his life in Lynnville. He was in the armed forces for one year, 1918-1919. He was with Andy Heslinga in the garage business in Lynnville for 23 years and then for himself for 19 years.

He was united in marriage to Miss Ada Bever at Atkins, Iowa, January 5th, 1923, to which union was born a son, Carl, Vernon of Lynnville.

Carl was a man whom all held in high respect for his kindly words and smile, a friend of all and interested helpfully.

He is survived by his wife, Ada; his son, Carl Vernon of Lynnville; a granddaughter, Beth; brothers and sisters, Mrs. Taiverta Stewart, Chillicothe, Iowa; Rex Jay, Wichita, Kansas; Mrs. Lena Sallenni, Downers Grove, Illinois; Bernard Jay, Lynnville; Mrs. Dora Taylor, Guthrie Center; Mrs. Blanche Hart, Marshalltown, Iowa, and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held in the Lynnville Friends church Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 1st in charge of Rev. Carl D. Byrd. Mrs. Howard Macy accompanied the quartette who sang "Beyond

The Sunset" and "Have Thine Own Way." Personnel of quartette was Jake Brand, Abe Vander Beek, Kenneth Ratcliff and Warren Stanley.

Pallbearers were Harold F. Macy, Andrew Heslinga, Stanley Millhouse, Edward Renaud, Ray Ver Steeg, and Earl Macy. Flower attendants were Mesdames Roscoe Sparks, Ozro Dearing, and Cliff Crews. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. In lieu of flowers many contributed money to be applied on the electrocardiograph machine for the office of Dr. R. E. Sparks.

Interment was in Woodland cemetery.
