

Estaline Jensen

Estaline I. (Esty) Jensen, 68, of 603 West St., Grinnell, died Tuesday, Nov. 21, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at the Grinnell Christian Church, with the Rev. John Epperson officiating. Organist was Sue Martindale, and vocalist was Marlene Toney.

Pallbearers were Harold Cocking, Larry German, Daryl Morrison, Roger Osborn, Adell Throckmorton and James White. Honorary bearers were Allen Anderson, Melvin Doty, Verlin Ellis, Eugene Neal, Paul Phillips, Ralph Phillips and Gary Zumaris. Fraternal rites were conducted by members of the Rebekah Lodge, with burial in Hazelwood Cemetery.

She was the daughter of Willie and Cleo Viola Warfield Morrison and was born Feb. 11, 1921, south of Kellogg. She and her family moved to a farm southeast of Grinnell, and she attended rural school. She graduated from Grinnell High School in 1939.

She was married to Earl J. Flanagan, and the couple farmed southeast of Grinnell. She later worked at the former McKey and Wee Firestone store, Spurgeon's, the Modernistic Beauty Salon, and the R&J Fabric Shop. For 12 years she worked as a floral designer with Bates Flowers, and more recently operated Esty's Sweet Shop in her home.

She was a member of the Grinnell Christian Church, Nazareth Chapter No. 37 of the Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem in Newton, Newton Chapter 100 of the Order of Eastern Star, Rebekah Lodge No. 199 of Grinnell, the Eagles Auxiliary, the American Legion Auxiliary, Grant No. 7 Harmony Ladies Aid, and the LGT Club.

She was married to Harold J. Jensen May 30, 1950, in Grinnell. The couple lived in Marshalltown for four years before returning to the farm southeast of Grinnell. In 1965, Mr. and Mrs. Jensen moved to Grinnell.

She is survived by her husband; her mother; two granddaughters; one brother, Junior Morrison of Lake Ponderosa; and a sister, Juanita Davis of rural Grinnell.

She was preceded in death by her father and her son, Larry J. Flanagan.
