P. K. Jensen, 81,
Dies Wednesday;
Rites At Harlan

Peter K. Jensen, 81, Grinnell, died Wednesday morning at a local hospital following an illness of the past several years.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at the Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan. Burial will be at Harlan. For additional information, friends may call at the Smith Funeral Home.

He was born Aug. 24th, 1879, at Avoca, Iowa, the son of Nels and Ellen Arentsen Peterson. He received his education at the Harlan country schools and took his apprenticeship as a machinist and tool and dye maker from T. K. Nelson of the Nelson Iron Works in Harlan.

On May 1st, 1907, he was united in marriage with Edna Larson in Shelby county and to this union was born one daughter, Mrs. Paul (Felicia) McNeal of Grinnell.

In addition to his wife, Edna, and his daughter, he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Mary Jensen of Powers Lake, N. D. and Mrs. Ida Jessen of Exira, and nine half-brothers and half-sisters.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one sister and one half-brother.

Mr. Jensen came to Grinnell from Newton in 1932 and owned and operated Jensen's Fix It Shop here for many years.

He was a member of the Christian church and the Knights of Pythias lodge in Grinnell.
