Ted Jochims, 81, Former County Resident, Dies

A former Poweshiek county resident, John Theodore (Ted) Jochims, 81, of Tama, died June 28th at a Tama nursing home following a lengthy illness.

Funeral services were held June 30th at the Harrison funeral home in Tama with the Rev. P. Boyd Mather, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Tama, officiating. Vocal music was provided by James Black, accompanied by Mrs. Lloyd Strine at the organ.

Palbearers were Harold Rehberg, Leslie Metz, Lyle Metz, Robert Metz, William Metz, and Clifford Jochims. Interment was in Oak Hill cemetery.

The son of Paul and Eliza Repeem Jochims, he was born May 30th, 1884, in Sheridan Township of Poweshiek county where he spent his boyhood and attended the rural schools. He farmed in the Sheridan area for several years before moving to Tama.

On December 19th, 1923, he was married to Jessie Marie Reavis in Tama.

He was employed at the paper mill in Tama and retired from his work there in 1953.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Beverly (Willena) Burch of Searsboro and Mrs. Anthony (Dolores) Fetter of Watford; three sons, Donald E. Jochims of Waterloo, Gordon J. Jochims of Tama, and Victor D. Jochims of Rockford, Ill.; two sisters, Mrs. John (Elma) Hansen of Schaller and Mrs. Harry (Minnie) Rehberg of Grinnell; and two brothers, Carl Jochims of Fort Dodge and Ben Jochims of Jefferson. Also surviving are 22 grandchildren.

A brother, Ernest Jochims, and two sisters, Annie Petersen and Emma Friedrichs, preceded him in death.
