

. SEPT. 13, 1962 - M R

James Johnson
Funeral Sunday

Funeral services for James Carl Johnson, 64, who was born in Lynnville and for years was a businessman at Searsboro, were conducted at the Friends church in Searsboro Sunday by Miss Myrtle C. Lee. Mamie Watson played the musical selections and accompanied soloist Alfred Steen. Mrs. Ellis Tish, Mrs. Harvey Gause and Mrs. Floyd Hasley cared for the flowers.

Interment was in the Friends cemetery at Lynnville. Casket bearers were Don Farmer, John McDowell, Floyd Hasley, Will Gray, Lewis Watson and Glen Lewis.

For the last several years the family has lived at Fremont, Nebr., where he died Sept. 6. Survivors include his wife, the former Eva Richards, of the home; a daughter, Mrs. John Gregory, a grandson, James Gregory, both of Lobard, Ill., and his mother, Mrs. E. B. Renaud, Lynnville.