

Monday, September 10, 1962

Searsboro Rites On Sunday For Former Resident

Jim Johnson, 64, former Searsboro and Lynnville resident, died suddenly Sept. 6 in Fremont, Neb., where he had made his home for the past several years.

Funeral services were held Sunday from the Searsboro Community church with the Rev. Myrtle Lee officiating. Vocal music was provided by Mrs. Alfred Steen, accompanied by Mrs. Mamie Watson at the piano. Flower bearers were Mrs. Evelyn Tish, Mrs. Helen Hasley and Mrs. Helen Gause. Pallbearers were Lewis Watson, John McDowell, W. W. Gray, Floyd Hasley, Don Farmer and Glen Lewis. Burial was in the Lynnville Friends cemetery with Smith Funeral Home in charge.

Mr. Johnson was born July 23, 1898, at Lynnville, and later was united in marriage with Eva Richards. The family lived on a farm near Searsboro and he operated his own store in Searsboro for several years. He was a veteran of World War I.

For 30 years he lived at Grand Island, Neb. He was a salesman for the United Hybrid Seed Corn Co., and later, in

---

TRIP OF T