

Mrs. G. F. Johnston

7-17-1931 Laid To Rest

Funeral services were said over the body of Mrs. George F. Johnston at the home, Thursday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. W. F. Vanderlip, pastor of the Presbyterian church. A large number were present to lend their sorrow and sympathy to the Johnston family. Flowers in profusion were also evidence of the esteem in which the deceased was held.

Mrs. Johnston died Tuesday morning of last week, causing sorrow to the entire community.

The semi-monthly meeting of the Luncheon club was not held last week because of the funeral. During the service the stores closed their doors.

Music at the ceremony was by a quartette composed of Mrs. D. B. High, Mrs. J. L. Taylor, Louis Gorsuch and John Platt, who sang favorite selections of Mrs. Johnston's. Earl Brown was at the piano.

Pall bearers at the funeral were Dr. A. B. Graham, Charles Duffus, B. L. Powell, Cliff Smith, all of Montezuma, W. A. Quinn of Vinton, and R. G. Ocheltree of Guernsey.—Republican.
