

Rites Held for Mr. Johnston

^{4/14/74}
Harlan James Johnston, 64, of Bellevue, Neb., died Thursday (April 4) in Omaha, Neb.

The son of Jesse J. and Sarah Morrison Johnston, he was born south of Brooklyn on Aug.
19, 1909. He attended the rural schools near his home.

On Feb. 10, 1930, he was married to Mildred Ellen Strong in Montezuma. The couple had two daughters, Mrs.
Donald (Dora) Bruck of Bellevue and Mrs. Donna Rae Carlson, who preceded him in death in 1972.

Following their marriage,
Mr. and Mrs. Johnston farmed in Poweshiek County. Later, they made their home in Grinnell and in Kellogg before moving to Omaha in 1942. Mr.
Johnston was associated with a metal-plating company there.
He was a member of St. James Methodist Church in Bellevue.

Survivors include his daughter, Dora; two grandchildren, Donora and David Bruck of Bellevue; one sister, Mrs. Orrie (Edna) Neitzel of Brooklyn; and a number of nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mildred, who died Mar. 27, 1966; his daughter, Donna; and a sister, Mrs. Alma Renfield.

Graveside services for Mr.
Johnston were held at 1:30 p.m. today (April 3) at the Ivy Hill Cemetery in Malcom, with the Rev. John W. McCallum, pastor of the Grinnell United Methodist Church, officiating.
The Smith Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
