

Gladys M. Jones

Gladys M. Jones, 92, of Little Rock, Ark., a native of Brooklyn and a former Grinnell resident, died Wednesday, April 28, at Williamsburg Retirement Inn in Little Rock.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Smith Funeral Home here, with the Rev. Cliff Bevins of the First Baptist Church officiating. Organist was James Severe. Pallbearers were Charles, Don and Brad Herrold, Paul Pedersen, Foster Pugh and Floyd Pugh Jr. Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the Hazelwood Cemetery tree-planting program or to the Jasper County Historical Association.

The daughter of Andrew and Emma Baustian Appleby, she was born March 26, 1901, in Brooklyn. She attended rural schools and Grinnell public schools.

She was married to Carl C. Jones in 1919 in Des Moines. They lived in Grinnell until 1932 when they moved to Newton. Mrs. Jones worked at J.C. Penny's there and for the Bond Clothing Co. She retired in 1974 and moved to Maumelle, Ark., in 1984.

Surviving are one daughter, Barbara J. Richey of Little Rock, two grandsons and five great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; four sisters, Lucille Foster, Ida Logan, Lillian Pugh and Clara Lash; and two brothers, Austin and Clinton Appleby.

CARL

H-R May 3, 1993