OBITUARY

Nancy Alice, daughter of Joseph and Sara Bogard, was born on July 14, 1874 in Wyoming, Ill., and passed away at her home in Montezuma on January 5, 1959, at the age of 84 years. When she was two years of age her family moved to Iowa where she grew to womanhood.

On November 1, 1893, she was united in marriage to William J. Jordan. To this union four children were born. They made their home on a farm southeast of Montezuma until Mr. Jordan's health failed in 1936, when they moved to Montezuma. He passed away in 1942.

Mrs. Jordan was a life long member of the Montezuma Methodist Church, and active in the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the King's Daughters Sunday School class in the church as long as her health permitted. For the past three years she has been in failing health.

In addition to her husband she was preceded in death by two sons, Earl and Harry. She is survived by her son, Allen, and daughter, Lucille Height, both of Montezuma; five grandchildren; seventeen great grandchildren; four great great grandchildren; one sister, Bessie L. Brown of Klamath Falls, Oregon; other relatives and many friends.
