

NETTIE M. JUNGBLUT.

11-7-1919

Nettie M. Fuller was born September 27, 1870, and passed away October 24, 1919. She was brought up in Chester township and after growing up to womanhood traveled very extensively through every state in the Union, through parts of Canada, Alaska, England and France.

She was very devoted to her mother and no matter where she was in her travels she was always mindful of her home, especially her mother. The parental home has many souvenirs of her travels.

She was united in marriage September 19, 1918 to Mr. Jungblut of Des Moines, in which city she made her home until the time of her death.

She was sick but a very few days. Taken to the hospital on Tuesday where she had a minor operation performed on her nose and died the following Friday.

She leaves to mourn her departure her aged mother of Chester Center, brother Will of Grinnell, brother Emery of Des Moines and her husband. Funeral was held from the parental home Sunday, Oct. 26, when the Rev. Mr. Smith, pastor of the Chester Congregational church, spoke from Psalm 102:24.

There were many floral tributes in evidence of the esteem in which the deceased was held by her relatives and friends. The body was laid to rest in the Chester cemetery.
