11-2-1961
Fred, son of Amanda and E.A. Kamerer, was born near Bangor, Mich., April 10, 1880, and died at his home in Searsboro, Oct. 17, at 77 years of age.

In his youth he attended the local school and became a member of the Mennonite church. He worked for nine years in Chicago, Ill., for the Chicago Daily News, and later came to Cedar, Iowa, where he met and married Edna Picken, Feb. 22, 1919.

To this union, one son and three daughters were born.

For several years they made their home on a farm near Searsboro. When they moved to Searsboro, he was employed by the Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad. For the past few years his health has been failing.

He is survived by his wife, their son Carl, who is with the Armed Forces at Fort Eustis, Va.; three daughters, Lola Mendell and Ruth, Kansas City, Mo., and Lucile Wightman, Braymer, Mo.; nine grandchildren, and two brothers, D.E. Kamerer, of Florida, and J. R. Kamerer, of Michigan, other relatives and many friends.

Funeral services for Fred Kamerer were conducted at the Steffy Funeral home by Rev. Warren H. Hendershott, pastor of Oak Grove Friends church, and interment was at West View cemetery, Kirkville, Iowa. Pallbearers were Roger Ollie, and Homer McDowell, Thomas Fleener, and Devern and Melvin Meredith.
