L. J. Kasson.

L. J. Kasson, one of the early graduates of Grinnell College in the class of '79, died at his home in Des Moines last Friday. Funeral services were held on Sunday from Plymouth Congregational church, of which he had been a faithful and helpful member for many years. Mr. Kasson was a man of ability, of wide reading and of advanced ideas, particularly along the line of municipal government. He was a frequent contributor to Des Moines newspapers along this, his favorite line of thought, and his contributions were always worth reading. He had been in the insurance business for many years and was accounted one of the state's successful men in that business. His death is very sincerely mourned by all who have known him.
