

are laid to rest. 6-10-1904

MARGARET MARCOTT KEENAN

Margaret Marcott Keenan was born in Clinton, Clinton county, N. Y. Jan. 1st 1843 and died at her home in Iowa City June 5, 1904 after an illness which had lasted for more than three months.

On the first of January 1862 at her home in Clinton she was united in marriage to Mr. William Keenan. Most of her married life was lived in and near Grinnell where she had very many friends and was greatly loved. One year was spent in California and a year in Iowa City.

She was a lady of high character and was greatly esteemed as was shown by the large concourse of friends who attended the funeral. The funeral services were conducted from the Catholic church at ten o'clock Tuesday morning by the Rev. J. Curtin and the interment was in Hazelwood Cemetery, the pall bearers being T. E. Bray, A. J. Breeden, H. P. Simmons, D. McKee, J. C. Creamer and William McKee.

A niece who had become an adopted daughter and a husband survive her and accompanied the remains from Iowa City.

Among the friends and relatives from out of town who attended the funeral were: Mrs. M. Smith and daughter, Mrs. M. Burke of Grimes, Mrs. C. W. Laing of Montezuma and Mrs. William Mahar of Brooklyn.
