Chas. Keener Died Sun. In Murdo, S. D.; Burial In Searsboro

1952

Charles Keener, who grew up in the Searsboro neighborhood and attended the Searsboro schools, died Sunday in Murdo, S. D., where he had lived for a good many years.

As soon as weather conditions make it possible, the body will be brought back for burial in the Searsboro cemetery, probably the latter part of this week or the first of next. Mr. Keener was a brother of Harry Keener, a brother-in-law of A. A. Robison of this city.
