

Carl Kenney rites today

Carl "Dutch" Kenney, 62, of 125 East St., Grinnell, died Thursday, Sept. 23, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. John Epperson of the Grinnell Christian Church officiating. Organist was Rose Schmidt, and vocalist was Sam Schmidt. Pallbearers were Dave Billman, Rich Billman, Gene Campbell, Jim Gallagher, Pat Gallagher and Don Van Dyke. Burial was at Pleasant Township Cemetery, Ewart.

The son of Clarence H. and Elsie I. Martin Kenney, he was born Jan. 27, 1920, at Brooklyn. He was a graduate of Brooklyn High School.

On April 16, 1949, he was married to Dorothy M. Morrison at Brooklyn. The couple lived in the Grinnell area following their marriage. Mr. Kenney was employed by Bill Peak's trucking company here for over 16 years. The family later farmed southeast of Grinnell until 1978 when Mr. Kenney retired because of poor health.

He is survived by his wife; his daughter, Bonnie Stewart of Grinnell; and his brother, O. Elven Kenney of Boone. He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Oscar M. Kenney.

Carl Kenney services held

Carl "Dutch" Kenney, 62, of 125 East St., Grinnell, died Thursday, Sept. 23, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 p.m. Sept. 27 at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. John Epperson of the Grinnell Christian Church officiating. Organist was Rose Schmidt, and vocalist was Sam Schmidt. Pallbearers were Dave Billman, Rich Billman, Gene Campbell, Bill Burk, Pat Gallagher and Don Van Dyke.

Burial was at Pleasant Township Cemetery, Ewart.

The son of Clarence H. and Elsie I. Martin Kenney, he was born Jan. 27, 1920, at Brooklyn.

He was a graduate of Brooklyn High School.

On April 16, 1949, he was married to Dorothy M. Morrison at Brooklyn. The couple lived in the Grinnell area following their marriage. Mr. Kenney was employed by Bill Peak's trucking company here for over 16 years.

The family later farmed southeast of Grinnell until 1978 when Mr. Kenney retired because of poor health.

He is survived by his wife; his daughter, Bonnie Stewart of Grinnell; and a brother, O. Elven Kenney of Boone. He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Oscar M. Kenney.