

Thursday, Jan. 22, 1976—page 2

The daughter of Cyrus A. and Martha E. William Sloan, she was born Oct. 1, 1890, in Edmonson County, Kentucky. She attended rural school near her home.

In 1910 she moved to Kellogg and was married to Claude T. Keeton in 1912. Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Keeton moved to Grinnell to make their home. Mr. Keeton died Dec. 11, 1949.

Survivors include three sisters, Mrs. Sam (Flora) Fiser and Mrs. Glen (Amanda) Stewart, both of Kellogg, and Mrs. Clarence (Minnie) Smith of Grinnell; several nieces and nephews; and one grand-niece, Mrs. Patricia Gibson Warren of Ontario, Calif., whom Mrs. Keeton raised in her home. She was preceded in death by her husband, Claude; her parents; two sisters, Mrs. Blaine (Rhoda) Gibson and Anna, who died in infancy; one half-sister; and two half brothers.

(Claude) Ethel Keeton,
85, dead here
last Sunday

Jan. 22, 1976
Ethel S. Keeton, 85, of 802 Park Street in Grinnell, the widow of Claude T. Keeton, died Sunday afternoon, Jan. 18 at Grinnell General Hospital.

Services for Edith Keeton were held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 20 at Smith Funeral Home. Rev. Philip J. Ramstad, minister of the United Church of Christ-Congregational, officiated over the services. Organist was Mrs. Willard Heffner. Casketbearers were Raymond E. Criswell, Roy Criswell, Arthur R. Ervin, William Haines, Jr., Paul Jorgenson and Robert Ragan. Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.