Francis Kellogg,
Former Resident,
Dies In California

Word has reached Grinnell of the death of Francis Kellogg of Santa Barbara, Calif., of a heart attack on Friday, Dec. 27. He was the husband of the former Pearl Cessna, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Newton Cessna, early day Grinnellians. Mrs. Kellogg is also a former Grinnell high school teacher.

Two cousins of the deceased have recently moved here from Newton and reside at the Mayflower Home. They are the Misses Ruth and Iowa Campbell.

Mr. Kellogg visited here often with his wife and will be remembered by many friends in the Grinnell area. He was in his early 80's.
