

Tells of Members Of Kendall Family

(FRANK G.)

Friends of the Kendall family, formerly of Grinnell, will be interested in a couple of clippings recently handed to The Herald by Will Gardner. One of them has to do with Frank G. Kendall, first trombone player of the San Diego Civic orchestra, who is highly commended for his fine musicianship and for the active part which he has taken in community enterprises during his 24 years of life in that city. The article is illustrated with a picture of Mr. Kendall as he looks now. Mr. Kendall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Kendall and spent his boyhood in Grinnell. He was always musical and played for a time in the college orchestra. He was also for a time a member of Phinney's concert band, a famous Iowa organization of years ago. He has also been trombonist in other wellknown organizations.

The other clipping tells of the wedding of Helen Kendall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kendall, also of San Diego. Albert Kendall is a brother of Frank Kendall and is well remembered here. He also was musical, being a fine pianist, and after study abroad taught piano here for several years to private pupils. His daughter is wellknown in San Diego musical circles as a violinist.
