

H-R October 24, 1983
Kentzelman services held

Arthur R. Kentzelman, 81, of Rock Creek Lake, Kellogg, died Wednesday, Oct. 19, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Wallace Funeral Home in Newton, with the Rev. H. Eugene Cedarholm officiating. The body was cremated.

The son of Ira and Irene Fryberger Kentzelman, he was born Dec. 21, 1901, in Waterloo. He was married to Grace Reiley on Dec. 21, 1962.

He was formerly a supervisor of quality control at Maytag Co. in Newton and had served as a special deputy sheriff. He was a charter member and past president of the Emerson Hough Chapter of the Izaak Walton League.

Survivors include his wife, Grace; a daughter, Lois Hampton of Torrington, Wyo.; a stepdaughter, Sally Popich of Jonesboro, Ark.; a stepson, Forest A. Southwick of Easley, S.C.; 10 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a son, Ronnie; four brothers and three sisters.