

HAROLD J. KIBBEE

Harold J. Kibbee, 65, of Brooklyn died Friday morning, Dec. 24, in Grinnell Hospital.

Services for Kibbee were held at 1:30 p.m. Dec. 27 in the Nevenhoven
Funeral Home. Rev. Harley Schull, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene of Grinnell, officiated. The organist was Mrs. Jan Read. Casketbearers were Ralph Brown, Warren Carmer, Earl Carmer, Harold Mahoney, David Mahoney, and Bob McCulley.
Interment was in the Brooklyn cemetary.

Harold James Kibbee, son of Edmund and Gladys Thomas Kibbee, was born in Brooklyn June 5, 1928.

Harold received his education in the Brooklyn school. He worked for 29 years for Manatt's, Inc. and then 11 years for Cessford Construction of LeGrand.

He was married Sept. 14, 1953 to Frances Lorraine McDonald in Grinnell. Surviving are his wife, Frances; two daughters, Deborah, and her husband, Michael Brown of Grinnell, and Connie Lorraine Kibbee of Brooklyn; two sons, Jeri and his wife, Deborah, of Montezuma, and Eddie Kibbee and Karrin Purscell of Newton; two sisters, Birdie, Mrs.
Don A. Coburn of Brooklyn and Patsy, Mrs. Forrest Picknell of Benedict, Nebr.; 11 grandchildren and two great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, one son, Jimmie Lee, and one brother, Earl.

BC December 29, 1993