Last Rites For H. I. King, 69, Held Saturday

Former Laundryman Dies of Heart Attack Wednesday on Street

Funeral services for Herman I. King. 69, operator of the Grinnell laundry for 20 years, were conducted at the James funeral home Saturday afternoon by the Rev. C. E. Kingsley, pastor of the First Baptist Stricken with a heart attack while walking on Third avenue near the Monroe hotel Wednesday afternoon, Mr. King died immediately. He had been in his normal health and had been visiting the Cecil King family in the laundry building.

Music for the funeral rites was by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bohstedt. Pallbearers were Frank Clay, Ed Speth, Herb Hutchison, Earl Kennedy, Harry Fry and John Snodgrass. Burial was in the Indiapolis cematery near What Cheer.

Born Near What Cheer

Born near What Cheer, May 21, 1883, Herman Isaac King was one of five children of Charles William and Mary Elizabeth King, pioneers of Keokuk county. On July 2, 1902 he was married to Madge Slaven of What Cheer. The Kings observed their 50th anniversary last July.

Four children were born to the Kings. Kenneth and Roy Lee died in infancy. Cecil of Grinnell and Bertha (Mrs. L.) M.) Snodgass of Oskaloosa survive along with the deceased's wife, 11 grandchildren, 3 greatgrandchildren, one brother and one sister.

To Grinnell In 1928

After farming near What Cheer in his early life, Mr. King opened a laundry in What Cheer in 1915. He moved to ed in Boy Scouting, serving as ed in operation of King's Grin-church. nell Laundry, purchasing the business from his father sev-Christian, charitable person, willof Marshalltown.

Mr. King was keenly interest-life associations.

Grinnell and started in the laun- a leader for over 15 years and dry business in 1928, also be- as a scoutmaster in What Cheer ing associated with the college from 1917 to 1928. A short time laundry for 12 years. before his death he attended a His son, Cecil, also participat- scout dinner at the Baptist eral years ago. Last year Cecil ing to work and interested in sold the business to the Hagers boys, and as one who placed integrity as very important in