

Lawrence
Ruth G. Kinnamon BC March 3, 1999

A private burial service will be held in Calvary Cemetery, Brooklyn, for Mrs. Ruth G. Kinnamon, 87, of Brooklyn, who died Saturday night, Feb. 27, 1999, in Brooklyn Community Estates, Brooklyn. The Rev. Fr. Richard Okumu, pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic Church, will officiate. Nevenhoven Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Ruth Gracia Jones Kinnamon, daughter of Charles and Anna Jennings Jones, was born March 16, 1911, near Livermore. She graduated from Livermore High School and Iowa State Teachers College. For six years she taught in the primary grades of the Ledyard Consolidated School.

She was married to Lawrence Kinnamon on June 28, 1937, in St. Cecilia Catholic Church, Algona. She had lived in Brooklyn since that time. For 25 years she assisted her husband in the operation of the Brooklyn Chronicle and participated in numerous community activities. She served on the Brooklyn Library Board for 10 years and headed the March of Dimes for several years.

Mrs. Kinnamon was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church and St. Patrick's Altar & Rosary Society.

She was preceded in death by a sister and a brother. Survivors are her husband; a daughter, Katherine A. Sewell of Edina, Minn.; two granddaughters, Diane Meissner of Minneapolis, Minn., and Karen Gibson of Bloomington, Minn.; and one sister, Arlene McFadden of Fort Dodge.
