

Dale Kinzebach Is Crash Victim

Dale L. Kinzebach, 24, died instantly early Friday morning when the semi-trailer truck he was driving struck a bridge pillar.

According to the Poweshiek County sheriff's office, the accident occurred at about 3:10 a.m. The truck, which was carrying about $40,000 worth of agricultural weed killer, was totally demolished in the mishap. Authorities said Kinzebach apparently fell asleep at the wheel as he was driving in the westbound lane of Interstate 80 four miles west of the Highway 63 interchange.

Two other trucks struck debris caused by the accident and skidded into a ditch. Neither was damaged, however, and no other injuries were reported.

OBITUARY

The son of Russell William Kinzebach of Ft. Morgan, Colo., and Mrs. Tonie (Lucille) Bogard of New Sharon, he was born Aug. 6, 1947, at New Sharon. He was a graduate of Montezuma High School in 1965. From 1965 to 1967, he served in the U.S. Army and, following his discharge, he lived for awhile in Ft. Morgan, later returning to Grinnell.

Mr. Kinzebach is survived by his wife, Marcia Kathleen Fleming Kinzebach; two stepdaughters, Julie and Jeanette; one son, Chad Allyn; his parents; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kinzebach of Barnes City and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Duinink of New Sharon; two sisters, Mrs. Gene (Caroline) Shook of Grinnell and Diana Lynn Kinzebach; and four brothers, Wayne E.

and Howard D. of Ft. Morgan, and Earl B. Bogard and Keith Bogard, both of New Sharon.

Services for Mr. Kinzebach were held at 1:30 p.m. today (Monday) at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Hugh A. Shiveley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in the Barnes City Cemetery with the Barnes City American Legion Post conducting graveside rites.

Organist was Norman Goodbrod, and pallbearers included Bob Hunter, Sonny Lemke, Gary McCammant, Gary Reid, Gene Sheets and Larry Beason.