Lena Klyn services held

Lena Klyn, 92, of the Lynnville-Sully area died Monday, Dec. 28, at Colonial Manor in Baxter.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at the Lynnville Friends Church, with the Rev. Kenneth Santee officiating. Burial was in Sully Cemetery, with the Harden Funeral Home in New Sharon in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were Bruce Klyn, Eric Klyn, Wayne Klyn, Curt Klyn, Duane White and Edward Earp.

The daughter of Arthur and Louisanna White Briggs, she was born on May 13, 1895, in Gibson. She graduated from Lynnville High School in 1914 and taught in rural schools the following year.

On Dec. 29, 1915, she was married to Henry Klyn. Mrs. Klyn was a partner in the farming operation.

After their retirement from farming in 1955, Mr. and Mrs. Klyn moved to New Sharon where she continued to live after her husband's death in 1964. She moved to a senior-citizen apartment in Lynnville before entering Colonial Manor.

Mrs. Klyn was a member of the W.C.T.U., the Lynnville Friends Church and the U.S.F.W.

She is survived by a daughter, Reva White of Lynnville; two sons, Earl of Baxter and Emmet of Searsboro; six grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; and two sisters, Bertha Earp of Killduff and Ma Wheatcraft of Knoxville. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, one son in infancy, four brothers and one sister.
