

Rites held for Mr. Krumm

Rudolph Krumm, 83, of Kellogg died Thursday, Oct. 27, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were conducted at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Stephen G. Miller, pastor of the Gilman Community United Church of Christ, officiating. Organist was Alice Renaud, and vocalist was Richard Ferguson.

Pallbearers were Howard Davis, Dave Krumm, Earl Lemke, Don Marshall, Danny McDowell and Truman Rosedale. Honorary bearers were Lester Ashing, Everett Baker, Eldon Beach, Roy Meyer and Harold Wunn.

Burial was in Westfield Cemetery south of Grinnell. Memorials in Mr. Krumm's name may be made to the Westfield Cemetery Association and sent in care of the Smith Funeral Home.

He was the son of Henry and Katherina Mathes Krumm and was born April 16, 1905, in the Westfield community. He attended rural school.

He was married to Irene Woodrow at Nashua on June 24, 1929. The couple lived in Council Bluffs where he worked for a pharmaceutical outlet. In 1943 the family moved to Newburg and later Gilman where they farmed.

His wife died in 1976 and Mr. Krumm retired from farming in 1977. He was married to Grace Stewart March 8, 1977, at Kellogg, and the couple lived in Kellogg.

Surviving are his wife, Grace; one son, Eugene of Wellsville, N.Y.; three daughters, Gwen Ward of St. Anthony, Vivian Krough of Marshalltown and Donna Norris of Burlington; 11 grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; two brothers, Henry of Montezuma and John of Brooklyn; and one sister, Catherine McDowell of Grinnell.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his first wife; one daughter, Shirley Krumm; and eight brothers.

8841116
KELLOGG
OCT 27 1980