

August J. H-R
April 6, 2000

Pauline Lacaeyse

Pauline E. Lacaeyse, 84, of Brooklyn died at her home Sunday, April 2.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at the Nevenhoven Funeral Home in Brooklyn, with the Rev. William Daylong officiating. Organist was Marilyn Kriegel, and casket bearers were Kenneth Carmichael, Dale Douglas, Loren Roudabush, Jason Roudabush, Lyle Oswood and Harold Hiner. Burial was in Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery.

She was the daughter of Eugene Silas and Elma Bate Mitchell and was born Sept. 16, 1915, in Beltrami County, Minn. Her family moved to State Center and, later, to a farm south of Brooklyn. She was a 1933 graduate of Brooklyn High School and was class valedictorian. She then worked as a secretary.

She was married to August Joseph Lacaeyse Sept. 30, 1939, in Grinnell. They farmed near Malcom.

Mrs. Lacaeyse was a member of Grace United Methodist Church of Brooklyn and taught Sunday school for many years. She wrote poems and short stories and was a member of a writers group at the Amanas.

Surviving are one son, Paul of Brooklyn; one brother, Ross Mitchell of Grinnell; and two sisters, Mickey Painter of Denver, Colo., and Eline McDonough of Gainesville, Fla.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and one brother, Gordon Mitchell.

A memorial fund has been established.

Pauline E. Lacaeyse

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, April 5, at the Nevenhoven Funeral Home in Brooklyn for Mrs. Pauline E. Lacaeyse, 84, of Brooklyn, who died in her home on Sunday, April 2, 2000.

The Rev. William Daylong will officiate and the organist will be Marilyn Kriegel. Special selections will be "In the Garden" and "How Great Thou Art." Casket bearers will be Kenneth Carmichael, Dale Douglas, Loren Roudabush, Jason Roudabush, Lyle Oswood and Harold Hiner. Interment will be in Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery.

Pauline Elma Mitchell Lacaeyse, daughter of Eugene Silas Mitchell and Dolly Elma Bate Mitchell, was born in a log cabin about six miles south of the Canadian border in Beltrami County, Minn., on Sept. 16, 1915. When she was a child, her family moved to State Center and later to a farm south of Brooklyn.

Pauline received her education in a rural school and the Brooklyn High School, where she graduated in 1933 as class valedictorian. She worked as a secretary for Montgomery Motors and later for Dr. Ringena for many years.

On Sept. 30, 1939, she was married in Grinnell to August Joseph Lacaeyse. They farmed near Malcom, and she was a member of Grace United Methodist Church of Brooklyn, where she taught Sunday school for many years. She enjoyed writing poems and short stories and was a member of a writers' group at Amanas.

Pauline was preceded by her husband, on Oct. 6, 1970, and a brother, Gordon Mitchell. Surviving are her son, Paul, of Brooklyn; one brother, Ross Mitchell of Grinnell; and two sisters, Mickey Painter of Denver, Colo., and Eline McDonough of Gainesville, Fla.

A memorial fund has been established.

BC April 5, 2000