Rites set for Myrtle Lamb

Myrtle Lamb, 81, of the Jasper County Care Facility died Tuesday at the care facility, where she had lived since 1961.

Graveside services will be conducted at 10:30 a.m. Friday at Our Silent City Cemetery, Kellogg. Friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.

The daughter of Alvin and Martha Jane Slagle Cooper, she was born Sept. 30, 1898, in Wayne County, Ky. She attended school near the family home and moved with her family to Kellogg when she was 17.

She lived in Brooklyn and Kellogg until suffering a stroke.

Survivors include her stepmother, Mrs. Alvin Cooper Sr.

of Kellogg; four sisters, Mrs. Dwight (Grace) Shoemaker of Grinnell, Juanita Carlock and Louise Leavelle, both of Palm Springs, Calif., and Mrs. Luverne (Opal) Smith of Rte. 3, Grinnell; four brothers, Shelby Cooper of Grinnell, Harmon Cooper of Kellogg, and Dick and Everett Cooper, both of Rte. 2, Kellogg; and a half brother, Alvin Cooper Jr. of Kellogg.

She was preceded in death by two brothers, William and Delmar Cooper, and two sisters, Mrs. Ethel Lemke and Mrs. Lila Gregory.

The Rev. Morris Hay of the Hickory Grove Church will officiate at Friday's graveside services.
