Donald A. Landuyt, 27, died Feb. 10
at his home in Grinnell.

The son of Wayne and Pam Peska Landuyt, Donnie was born June 29, 1968, in Grinnell. He lived in the Victor area until the age of four and moved with his family to Grinnell. He had a detailed memory of his home in Victor - a small farm house with many great memories.

He was a 1986 graduate of Grinnell High School. He also attended Marshalltown Community College. He was employed by several Grinnell area businesses before beginning his employment with the Donaldson Company in August 1987.

He was married to Brandi Sisson on June 24, 1995, in Grinnell where the couple made their home. He was a member of the Grinnell Eagles Lodge and the U.A.W. 1201. Donnie held a great love for his wife and family. He was very family-oriented and enjoyed socializing with them and his friends. He loved music and was a major fan of Fleetwood Mac and Stevie Nicks. He enjoyed going to movies; playing cribbage, keno and bingo; and watching All-Star Wrestling.

He held a great sense of humor and was a practical joker. He loved children and was particularly fond of his two nieces. He was a "Good Samaritan."

He is survived by his wife, Brandi of Grinnell; his parents, Wayne and Pam Landuyt of Grinnell; his sister and brother-in-law, Ginger and Mark Housley and their two children, Chelsea Jo McCurry and Brooklyn Kay Housley, all of Newton; his grandparents, Donald and Virginia Peska of Hartwick and Florence Landuyt of Belle Plaine; a great grandmother, Hazel Peska of Marengo; two brothers-in-law, Todd and Shad Sisson, both of Grinnell; his father and mother-in-law, Jay and Linda Sisson of Las Vegas; and his grandparents-in-law, John Clement, Sr. of Altoona, JoAnn Hicks of Fairfield and Betty Smith of Newton.

Donnie died Feb. 10 at his home, at the age of 27. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Alfonse Landuyt.

Funeral services will be held Feb. 15 at Grinnell Christian Church with the Rev. John Epperson, pastor, officiating.

Music will be by Sue Martindale, organist and tape music by Fleetwood Mac - "Silver Spring" and "Storms."

Pallbearers: Jeff Cecak, Mark Elhard, Mark Housley, Ruben Moffett, Todd Sisson and Joseph Sumner.

Interment will be at Hartwick Cemetery.

The family will receive friends at the Grinnell Eagles Lodge, 616 4th Ave., following the committal service at the cemetery.

Should friends desire, memorial contributions may be made to the Donald A. Landuyt Memorial Fund.
