

Thursday, October 28, 1965

Funeral Services Held Wednesday For Allen Lang

MADISON (Special) — Allen Lang, lifelong resident of the Madison community, died at his home early Monday following a prolonged illness.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning from the Madison Church of Christ with the pastor, Ken Siemens, officiating. Organ music was provided by Mrs. Jack Lang.

In charge of flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Read and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kleiss. Pallbearers were Marion Hendrickson, Harold Keller, Merle Lang, James Lang, Maynard Lang and Eugene Lang. Burial was in the IOOF cemetery at Brooklyn.

Born Feb. 12th, 1889 in Madison township, he was the son of John B. and Nettie Lang. On Mar. 6th, 1912, he was married to Ellen Hendrickson, who survives. They were the parents of two children, Wallace, who lives on the home farm, and Mrs. Elwood (Pauline) Burlingame of Grinnell. There are seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Other survivors include two brothers, Howie of Brooklyn and Russell of Grinnell; and two sisters, Mrs. Henry Hendrickson of Brooklyn and Mrs. Roy Noe of Adel.

He was preceded in death by a granddaughter, Marilyn Burlingame.

Mr. Lang was a long-time member of the Madison Church of Christ and served for many years as an elder. He also served on the board of directors of the Brooklyn Cooperative Creamery and was a charter member of the Poweshiek County Farm Bureau.

He was well known over the state for his work with purebred Hampshire hogs and for many years was a director of the State Hampshire Swine Association.

Rites Wednesday For Allen A. Lang

Allen A. Lang, 76, prominent Madison township farmer, died at his home Monday morning after an extended illness.

Services were Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 at the Madison Church of Christ with the minister, Ken Siemens, officiating. Mrs. Jack Lang was organist.

Burial was in the Brooklyn I.O.O.F. cemetery, with the following serving as pallbearers: Marion Hendrickson, Harold Keller, Merle Lang, James Lang, Maynard Lang and Eugene Lang.

Flower attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Read and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kleiss.

A son of John B. and Nettie Lang, Allen A. Lang was born Feb. 12, 1889, and died Oct. 25, 1965, in Madison township, where he had spent his entire life.

A long-time member of the Madison Church of Christ, he was active in church affairs and served for many years as elder.

He also served on the board of directors of the Brooklyn Co-operative Creamery and was a charter member of the Poweshiek county Farm Bureau. Well known over the state for his work with purebred Hampshire hogs, for many years he was a director of the state Hampshire Swine Association.

March 6, 1912, he was married to Ellen Hendrickson, who survives. The couple had two children, a son, Wallace, who lives on the home farm, and a daughter, Mrs. Elwood (Pauline) Burlingame, of Grinnell. There are seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Also surviving are two brothers, Howie of Brooklyn, and Russell of Grinnell, and two sisters, Mrs. Henry Hendrickson of Brooklyn and Mrs. Roy Noe of Adel. He was preceded in death by a granddaughter, Marilyn Burlingame.

6--Brooklyn (Ia.) Chronicle--

October 28, 1965