
*
* DIED. *
* 10-6-1914 *

George Larson.

The body of George Larson, who died in Minneapolis on October 1 of typhoid fever, was brought to Grinnell Saturday morning and the funeral was held on Sunday afternoon from the Norwegian church. Interment was in Hazelwood cemetery. Deceased was a brother of Newt Larson, who lives on a farm northeast of Grinnell. Up to the time of his fatal illness he had been employed as a motorman on the Minneapolis street railway. His parents are in Norway. He was 26 years of age.